

HEALTH SERVICES POLICY AND MANAGEMENT, M.P.H.

The M.P.H. program prepares students for management in the public health sector, such as federal, state, and local health agencies. Some M.P.H. graduates work in the private sector.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will be able to apply operations management concepts to address organizational performance issues in health service organizations.
- Students will be able to describe legal perspectives on health policy and management issues, including assessment of legal and regulatory environments in the context of public health.
- Students will be able to apply economic principles for allocating and mobilizing resources for public health interventions and programs.
- Students will be able to apply the principles and tools of budgeting, resource management, and financial analysis to improve efficiency of public health and health care delivery organizations.
- Students will be able to develop policy options for the achievement of an agency's or program's objectives.
