Degree Programs

The Bachelor of Arts degree is available with majors in art history, art studio, and media arts. A Bachelor of Fine Arts degree is offered in art studio and art education. The art education BFA is designed for students who seek certification to teach art in K-12 settings. The Bachelor of Fine Arts in art studio offers concentrations in: ceramics, drawing, graphic design, painting, photography, printmaking, and 3D/sculpture.

The School of Visual Art and Design offers four major areas of study and several degrees in the fields of ART EDUCATION, ART HISTORY, ART STUDIO, and MEDIA ARTS.

Students pursuing a degree in ART EDUCATION receive broad exposure to studio art, art history, education, critical perspectives and aesthetics, and can earn certification to teach art in K-12 schools.

The ART HISTORY program offers courses in art and architecture across cultures and from antiquity to the present. Students develop skills in research, analysis, criticism, and theory.

ART STUDIO encompasses seven areas of studio specialization within the BFA degree: ceramics, drawing, graphic design, painting, photography, printmaking, and 3D/sculpture.

Students pursuing a degree in MEDIA ARTS study media practices and global media cultures in courses where they analyze and produce media such as films, video games, manga, animations, internet art, mobile applications, screenplays, and more.

Honors Sections

The School of Visual Art and Design participates in the University's Honors College. Each year, one or more sections of art, media, or art history courses are generally offered for honors students.

Scholarships

A limited number of competitive scholarships are available for School of Visual Art and Design majors, including incoming freshmen. Contact the department office or visit the School of Visual Art and Design website for further information.

Class Attendance

Students are obligated to complete all assigned work promptly, to attend class regularly, and to participate in whatever class discussion may occur. The instructor's attendance policy should be ascertained by the student at the beginning of the semester. Faculty members should notify classes specifically of the attendance policy which they intend to follow in each class.
