

ENGLISH, M.A.

Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate in-depth knowledge of specific authors and works and/or central issues relevant to their fields of emphasis.
2. Students will apply professionally relevant theoretical concepts to the analysis of canonical texts and/or central issues specific to their fields of emphasis.
3. Students will demonstrate facility in basic research methods and the use of existing scholarship specific to their fields of emphasis.
4. Students will develop in-depth knowledge in their field of emphasis, along with competency in at least one other area of literary and rhetorical studies.