

ENGLISH, M.A.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate in-depth knowledge of specific authors and works and/or central issues relevant to their fields of emphasis.
- Students will apply professionally relevant theoretical concepts to the analysis of canonical texts and/or central issues specific to their fields of emphasis.
- Students will demonstrate facility in basic research methods and the use of existing scholarship specific to their fields of emphasis.
- Students will develop in-depth knowledge in their field of emphasis, along with competency in at least one other area of literary and rhetorical studies.