

HISTORY, M.A.

Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate competence in two fields of history.
2. Students will produce significant contributions to scholarship prior to completing the MA thesis.
3. Students will produce MA theses that contribute to scholarship in their major field.
4. Students who serve as graduate teaching assistants will develop competence as teachers.
5. Students will become familiar with the employment options for which the MA in History is a valuable credential and will identify paths most likely to lead to fulfillment of their individual career goals.