

MATHEMATICS, M.A.

Degree Requirements (30 Hours)

The M.A. degree requires 30 approved semester hours of graduate mathematics course work. All courses in the student's program must be numbered 700 and above and must include one Mathematics Ph.D qualifying exam sequence and one course in one of the other qualifying exam sequences. A "master's pass" or "pass" is required in one Mathematics Ph.D qualifying exam.