

PSYCHOLOGY, M.A. (RESTRICTED TO STUDENTS IN THE PSYCHOLOGY, PH.D. PROGRAM)

Degree Requirements (30 Hours)

Students will choose from one of the following concentrations: Clinical Community Psychology, School Psychology, Quantitative Psychology, or Cognitive and Neural Sciences. All concentrations require submission of a satisfactory thesis, a positive evaluation of the associated oral defense, and successful completion of at least 30 hours of coursework, specified below:

Core Methods Courses (6 Hours)

Course	Title	Credits
PSYC 709	Basic Quantitative Methods in the Analysis of Behavioral Data I	3
PSYC 710	Basic Quantitative Methods in the Analysis of Behavioral Data II	3
Total Credit Hours		6

¹ Note: (may be substituted by STAT 700 and STAT 701, or STAT 702 and STAT 703)

Thesis Preparation (3-6 hours required depending on concentration)

Course	Title	Credits
PSYC 799	Thesis Preparation	3-6

Additional Courses (18-21 hours)

Students in each concentration will complete additional required or elective courses to reach a total 30 credit hours of coursework.