

MEDIA ARTS, M.A.

The Master of Arts (M.A.) degree in Media Arts provides advanced education in media theory, history, and artistic practice. The program prepares students to pursue media arts in a variety of contexts including independent, commercial, and academic. Students pursuing the degree will refine their creative arts practice in one or more of the following areas: moving image, writing, new media, and media theory. Recognizing the interdisciplinarity of the media arts, the program encourages students to foster interests in and affiliations with other disciplines across the university. Students applying to the program should have academic and/or work experience in a field related to media arts and a portfolio that exhibits a capacity for theoretical, historical, and/or cultural inquiry.

Learning Outcomes

1. Media Arts graduate students will demonstrate specialization and mastery appropriate to their developed program of practice.
2. Media Arts graduate students will conceptualize, research and realize sophisticated and critically informed projects.
3. Media Arts graduate students will submit and exhibit their artworks in appropriate external forums and proceedings.
4. Media Arts graduate students will frame their own artwork in terms of current issues and theories in media culture.
