

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS / KOC UNIVERSITY MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, M.I.B. / M.I.M.

The program will give selected students from both institutions the opportunity to acquire the Master of Science in International Management (MIM) from Koc University and the Master of International Business (MIB) from USC, through a planned program of courses taken at both schools designed to meet all curriculum requirements of both institutions.

Admissions

Each home institution will be responsible for selecting their students. Each home institution will nominate students to the host institution. The host institution shall make the final admission decision regarding those nominated based upon the existing admission criteria of the host institution.

Degree Requirements

Each institution confers its own degree for work done to meet the graduation requirements for the specific degree of that institution.
