

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS, M.I.B./AUDENCIA BUSINESS SCHOOL

Degree Requirements

Each academic institution will welcome the partner institution's students enrolling in the:

- Master of Science in Financial Markets and Sustainable Investments, Responsible Procurement and Supply Chain Management, Data Science for Marketing, Business Strategy & Consulting, Food & Agribusiness Management, Sustainable Luxury, Cultural & Arts Management, and the Master in Management at Audencia, and
- Master of International Business (MIB) at South Carolina, with a view to awarding a degree to the students of the partner institution meeting the requirements set out in this agreement.

The intended length of study for the double degree program shall be two years. Double degree students will study at their home institution for the first academic year and then study at the host institution for their second academic year.

The program requirements for each degree must be fulfilled. Each institution will be the sole judge of whether a student has completed the requirement for the degree that it awards. Each institution may change the requirements for their degree according to their own governance process and give notification to the partner institution. If a student does not meet the requirements of the host institution's degree, the home institution reserves the right to award its own degree to the student.

At Audencia, the [Title] of Masters programs approves applications for graduation upon completion of the Masters Programmes.

At South Carolina, the Dean of the Graduate School approves applications for graduation upon completion of the MIB degree requirements.

Recognition of Coursework and Credit Transfer

Recognition of coursework will be based on the transcripts of records provided by each partner institution. By participating in the double degree program, students allow the Registrar to release their transcripts.

Double degree students will be required to complete at Audencia [sixty (60) ECTS] and at South Carolina thirty (30) credit hours (1 credit hour equal to 2 ECTS). Each institution will determine if, and the amount of, credit hours or ECTS that may be transferred towards its degree.
