

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS / UNIVERSITÀ BOCCONI MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT, M.I.B. / M.I.M.

The program will give selected students from both institutions the opportunity to acquire the Master in International Business (MIB) issued by the University of South Carolina and the Italian Laurea Magistrale in Management (M) or International Management (IM) or Marketing Management (MM) issued by Bocconi.

Admissions

Each partner will select students for the program autonomously, in accordance with the following general guidelines jointly defined by the two partners:

- Students are enrolled in the respective degree program at the home institution
- Excellent academic performance in previous bachelor degree programs and – if known - in the early stages of the home university's Master of Science
- Academic, cultural, and personal motivation and interest in the program
- Proficiency in the English language

Students enrolled in the Darla Moore Master's Degree may apply for the program by the end of their first semester in the MIB. Darla Moore will nominate selected students to Bocconi no later than mid-April prior to their stay at Bocconi. Bocconi students enrolled in the M, IM or MM programs may apply at the end of their first semester of the first year. Bocconi will nominate selected students to Darla Moore no later than April 1st.

Degree Requirements

The curriculum will meet the minimum requirements set by the respective institution. Each institution confers its own degree for work done to meet the graduation requirements for the specific degree of that institution.
