

APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS, M.ED.

Program Description

The M.Ed. in Applied Behavior Analysis is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills required to become Board Certified Behavior Analysts(R) (BCBA). This 36 credit degree program includes classroom-based courses in applied behavior analysis and a practicum course designed to meet the supervised fieldwork requirements to sit for the national BCBA exam.

Degree Requirements

Applied Behavior Analysis Courses (21 credits)

Course	Title	Credits
EDEX 610	Instruction of Students with Severe and Multiple Disabilities	3
EDEX 701	Nature of Students with Autism	3
EDEX 715	Applied Behavior Analysis in Special Education	3
EDEX 716	Functional Behavioral Assessment and Behavior Interventions	3
EDEX 717	Ethics in Behavior Analysis	3
EDEX 809	Single-Case Research Designs in Special Education	3
Select one additional, related course in applied behavior analysis as approved by advisor		3
Total Credit Hours		21

Practicum Course (15 credits)

Course	Title	Credits
EDEX 718	Intensive Practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis (take for 3 credits each of five semesters)	15
Total Credit Hours		15