

BIostatISTICS, CERTIFICATE

Admissions

Admission to the GCiB program will typically include graduate students or working professionals who have completed at least one undergraduate course in statistics or biostatistics course with an overall GPA of B or better. Students currently enrolled in other graduate degree programs at USC are automatically eligible to pursue the certificate (with permission of their home department for concurrent enrollment).