

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH, CERTIFICATE

The Maternal and Child Health certificate aims to equip students to become professionals for positions in governmental and non-governmental public health organizations serving women, infants, and children at local, regional, and national levels.