

RELIGIOUS STUDIES, B.A.

The Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies helps students understand a wide range of social issues and offers insights into politics, ethnicity, economics, public policy and family life.

Students will develop critical-thinking abilities, analytical reading and writing skills and deepen their capacity for interpretation and comparison, abilities essential to every field of study. Undergraduates may choose the general major or the intensive track, which requires additional coursework, consistent academic excellence and an advanced senior thesis project.

Graduates with a B.A. in religious studies will be prepared for graduate school in areas related to religious studies, such as anthropology, philosophy, history, English, psychology and more. While some may consider a graduate degree in theology or pastoral ministry, students will be prepared for careers in a variety of fields. Religious studies graduates also have gone on to professional schools, including law and business schools.

Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to apply the concept of situatedness in the description and analysis of data, which they will contextualize with reference to at least one religious tradition.
2. Students will be able to evaluate the history of the academic field of religious studies, including issues related to its present-day iterations; advanced methodological and theoretical approaches; and the analytical category of "religion."
3. Students will compare and evaluate multiple approaches within the study of religion in order to create their own perspective, which they will apply toward an original analysis of a range of religious data.

3. Program Requirements (34-49 hours)

Cognate or Minor (12-18 hours)

Students must complete a cognate (12 hours) or a minor as part of this program. In lieu of a cognate or minor, an additional major may be added to a student's program of study. Additional majors must include all major courses as well as any prescribed courses noted (*) in the bulletin.

Prescribed courses noted in the bulletin may be shared with Carolina Core, College requirements, and Program requirements in the primary program.

Cognate (12 hours)

The cognate must consist of twelve (12) hours of courses at the advanced level, outside of but related to the major. The cognate may be taken in one or more departments or programs.

Courses offered by departments and programs that are acceptable for cognate credit are outlined in the section titled Courses Acceptable for Cognate Credit in Degree Programs in the College of Arts and Sciences (<https://academicbulletins.sc.edu/undergraduate/arts-sciences/courses-acceptable-cognate/>). Some major programs have specific cognate requirements. It should be emphasized that the cognate is not a second set of elective courses to be chosen at random by the student. Students are urged to consult their major advisors for specific requirements in their major.

For Bachelor of Arts degrees, all cognate courses must be passed with a grade of C or higher.

Minor (18 hours)

In place of the cognate a student in the College of Arts and Sciences may choose a minor consisting of at least 18 credit hours of prescribed courses.

The minor is intended to develop a coherent basic preparation in a second area of study. It differs from the cognate inasmuch as the courses must follow a structured sequence.

Courses applied toward general education requirements cannot be counted toward the minor. No course may satisfy both major and minor requirements. All minor courses must be passed with a grade of C or higher. At least half of the courses in the minor must be completed in residence at the University.

A list of minor programs of study can be found at Programs A-Z (<https://academicbulletins.sc.edu/undergraduate/programs-az/>).

Electives (16-37 hours)

120 (or 128) degree applicable credits are required to complete any degree at UofSC. After the cognate, minor or second major is complete, any additional credits needed to reach 120 (or 128) total credits can be fulfilled by electives. No courses of a remedial, developmental, skill-acquiring, or vocational nature may apply as credit toward degrees in the College of Arts and Sciences. The College of Arts and Sciences allows the use of the Pass-Fail option on elective courses. Further clarification on inapplicable courses can be obtained from the College of Arts and Sciences.

Note: 10-31 hours of electives will be needed to reach hours to graduate and Program Requirements will range from 28-43 hours, if completing the Intensive Major or the B.A. with Distinction in Religious Studies.

4. Major Requirements (24 hours)
