

THEATRE MINOR

The theatre minor allows students to pursue their passion for theatre through a wide variety of performance, stagecraft and theatre studies coursework. Theatre minors put their knowledge into practice on and off the stage in productions and in our scenic and costume studios, gaining practical experience they can carry forward into future work in the theatre. The minor develops skills in communication and creative problem solving, enhancing a student's major and career goals in a variety of fields.