All majors in the Moore School of Business must earn a minimum grade of C in all business and economics courses to count toward graduation requirements. Students must petition to take any business or economics class for a third time. Petitioning does not guarantee permission and based on academic record, some students may be required to change majors or transfer out of the business school.

CLEP Subject Examinations

Students who wish to obtain credit for certain business administration courses may do so as follows:

- ACCT 225: CLEP Subject Examination titled “Financial Accounting” with a score of 72 or higher available from the testing service.
- ACCT 324: CLEP Subject Examination titled “Introductory Business Law” with a score of 72 or higher available from the testing service.
- MGMT 371: CLEP Subject Examination titled “Principles of Management” with a score of 72 or higher available from the testing service.
- MKTG 350: CLEP Subject Examination titled “Principles of Marketing” with a score of 72 or higher available from the testing service.

Dual Degrees

Currently enrolled students from other USC colleges who expect to obtain a second baccalaureate degree from the Moore School of Business must meet regular admission and progression requirements of the school and formally apply and be accepted by the school prior to obtaining 75 hours.

Classes

Enrollment priority will be given to business majors who are in good academic standing in all business and economics classes.

Suspension

The Moore School of Business adheres to the University’s general policy on suspension.

Graduation

All students admitted to the Moore School of Business effective Fall 2016 and thereafter must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.80 on all USC work attempted in order to obtain a degree from the Moore School of Business.

Attendance Requirements

Students are expected to attend all regular class meetings. Students must conform to university attendance regulations as stated in the section entitled “Academic Regulations.” Where specific faculty policies regarding attendance are more stringent, they will be stated in writing for individual courses.
