

INTERNATIONAL REQUIREMENT

All undergraduate business students take nine credit hours of course work containing international content. These hours may be used to fulfill other degree requirements in a student's program of study.

Students must complete at least nine credit hours of internationally focused content while enrolled in the Darla Moore School of Business.

At least three credit hours must be taken from Moore School courses.

Approved course work containing international business or international economics content, taken at a semester abroad program

An approved Maymester or summer overseas course containing international business or international economics content

An approved internship course in international business wherein a student would obtain discipline-related work experience in a foreign country

Up to six credit hours may be taken from courses offered inside or outside of the Moore School.

Examples of two ways that students may meet this requirement are as follows:

1. Any two courses with international content from courses offered by the school or an approved list of courses with international content offered outside the school
2. Two language courses at the 200 level or above in same language
