

SECONDARY EDUCATION MATHEMATICS MINOR

The Secondary Education Mathematics Minor is designed to prepare students in quantitatively oriented majors (outside of Mathematics) for the 'fifth-year' Secondary Education Master of Teaching (M.T.) program. Completion of the Minor does not guarantee admission into the M.T. program. Contact the Office of Student Affairs in the College of Education for information on the M.T., its admission requirements, and possible additional course work requirements for some majors.