

BEVERAGE MANAGEMENT MINOR

A Minor in Beverage Management allows students to better understand the business of effective beverage management in the hospitality industry. This minor focuses on the unique skill set and knowledge beverage managers must possess to effectively lead a profitable beverage business. This is accomplished through management theories, experiential labs, and industry professionals providing real world insights.